

Edition 2025

REGULATIONS

1. Themes

A. ART, ARTIST, all about: what is the art and who are the artists; art and artists from anywhere, anytime and from any field; the purpose and role of art in the society and in the life of each individual, artist or not; art for all or art for art; quality, modernity, themes and colors in art; museums and galleries etc.

B. PORTRAIT of an artist from anytime

We are expecting meaningful and clever works at a high artistic level.

2. Participants

Only individual participants, over 18 years old, regardless of their gender, nationality or country of residence.

3. Art works

Editing and adapting of the works of other artists are not allowed.

The works must be the property of the participants and must be sent only by the author himself.

In black & white or in colour; must be signed.

Good quality of images, JPG, JPEG format, max. 800 KB/work, 300dpi resolution.

No captions and texts are accepted (text means one or more letters / digits / any characters or signs).

Each participant may submit 1 (one) work on each theme.

The works may not be previously awarded or published in catalogues or media.

No works with “adult content” or regarding real individuals or organizations will be accepted, regardless of their artistic quality; organizers own the right do not admit in the Salon works that may attempt against individual and/or collective rights - anyway all responsibility for any possible attempt against individual and/or collective rights is only on the authors -

4. Technique: It's free of choice, in 2 (two) dimensions but no photographic art or collages, no printed or photocopies or colored copies

5. Deadline of receiving works: December 26th, 2025

6. Participation

Will be accepted only ONE e-mail per participant, containing all works, requested information and documents: works, the personal photo/caricature - Max. 250KB, max. 300dpi, JPG, JPEG format and the completed and signed ENTRY FORM (in word's format)

7. Awards

Three prizes, “Salt & Pepper” prize and one Nomination will be available per each theme. The prizes consist in exposure on the Salon's website of: name and surname of the cartoonist, personal photo/cartoon, the award-winning works, technique, dimensions, price/work

The diplomas and the poster of the edition will be send by e-mail to all qualified participants.
The works will be exposed if these respond to all criteria and conditions mentioned in this document.
The Jury is entitled do not award one or more prizes according to their art's criteria.
The jury decision cannot be appealed.

8. Winners

Participants whose works are selected to be awarded will be notified by e-mail.
Into max. 15 days after announcing prizewinners, they must send by e-mail their works according to all the above. mentioned conditions.
The author which don't respect rules will be replaced by the next selected author and will not be awarded.

9. Jury

The panel of the international jury will be announced soon.

10. Submission address

e-mail: salt.pepper.s1@gmail.com with the subject: IS&PSAS / 2025, name & country of the artist

11. Other specifications

The album of the Salon will be edited in electronic format, if possible.
All participants and prizewinner will be announced in mass-media.
The works will not be returned.

By submitting works and information, the authors automatically express their agreement with the GDPR (Regulation 2016/679/EU on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, applied by all European Union states). By signing the attached Entry Form, authors gives authorization to The "Salt & Pepper" Magazine and to The International Salt & Pepper Satirical Art Salon the right to archive and process the author's personal data for the purpose of running the competition, organizing exhibitions and publishing works and information about participants and accept, for advertising, the publishing in mass-media of the received works and the author's name and country, without limitation and any compensation to the authors.
The Salon and the Magazine do not sell anything, are not involved in the sale of the works and cannot be held responsible in any business transactions between authors and their beneficiaries.
Participation into International Salt & Pepper Satirical Art Salon means the acceptance of all of the above regulations.

"Have enough salt and pepper in your life to be healthful, happy and full of humor!"

The International Salt & Pepper Satirical Art Salon
<http://1stsaltandpeppersalon.weebly.com/>
salt.pepper.s1@gmail.com

"Salt & Pepper" Magazine

Bucharest, Romania

<http://saltandpepperm.blogspot.com> e-mail: salt.pepper.m@gmail.com

